Q The US hike in H-1B visa fees exposes India's dependence on foreign job market. Analyse its implication and suggest measures for India to reduce this reliance.

Ans Recently US president Trump announced H-1B visa fees more than $1,00,000. It might impact on India's technology sector or service sector.

Introduction:

Good - You began with the recent announcement and linked it to India's IT and service sector.

Improve - The introduction is too general; you should clearly mention India's dependence on foreign job markets to align with the question demand.

Body:

Good - You touched on implications like unemployment, trade impact, and Indo-US relations, and also gave some suggestions.

Improve - The points are not well-structured and mix unrelated issues (like India-China cooperation) without linking back to the visa context. More focus on job market, workforce, and domestic reforms was needed.

Conclusion:

Good - You tried to end on a note about solutions like FTA with EU/UK.

Improve - The conclusion is weak and lacks a clear way forward on domestic job creation and migration policy reforms.

implication

It can lead to India's unemployment rate which is already high.

Good - You tried to end on a note about solutions like FTA with EU/UK.

Improve - The conclusion is weak and lacks a clear way forward on domestic job creation and migration policy reforms.

→ It might be impact on India because India has surplus with US because of technology sector or service sector.

→ These type of expose can might India-US relations.

→ US promoting de-globalization because of globalization benefit developing countries.

Suggestion

→ Tuhis can influence or replicate like China announced visa fee it might sound negative it can benefit.

→ It shows power changes US to China.

→ Creating a Tuhis structure to be helping people.

→ Tuhis brilliant mind can be create innovation or Tuhis self-dependent or American block.

→ China and Tuhis come together oppose the de-globalization but summit happen London 2018.

Tuhis and China are beneficiary of globalization in their time but through FTA agreement with EU and UK can ~~have~~ Tuhis managed these disruption.
