Ans

Recently Maratha assembly has granted the 10% reservation to Maratha community in education and government jobs, following decade old protest to get reservation. It has raised the concern against the social equilibrium set by Indrakant case 1992

Arguments for

Good Points here

- 1) It will empower local Marathes with minimum reservation in addition to general competition,
- 2) Govt has granted reservation on the basis economic backwardness which is admissible
- 3) Kerala has already provide reservation to students of states breaching 50% slab

1) Supreme court has upheld the 65% constitutional amendment

Argument against

1) Domino effect could be possibility like job reservation

2) Against constitutional idea of equality under article 14 and 16

Supreme court has set criteria for reservation like proportionality, socio-political backwardness, but it doesn't fall in this category. could have larger consequences like riots seen in Mandal case, Manipur violence etc.

Reservation is sensitive concern and is a tool of socio economic empowerment, thus need to be used to be given to deserved and required sections only

Mention also some way to reward, like, Strengthening the Bills, Collaborative Approach, Review and Reforms etc.
