

27. Should coaching be restricted to those above 16 years of age of India? Discuss the impact of this new rule, its effectiveness, and the way forward in addressing the issues within the coaching industry.

6.5/15

The Government of India has been recently planning to introduce law to restrict coaching for students above 16 years only.

Mention aim in intro.

However, it is a matter of debate and it needs consultative arguments from all the parties involved. There are arguments both in favour and against this law.

Arguments Against

(i) The school curriculum is not up-to-the mark and coaching is needed to learn applied concept.

Add more dimension

(ii) The highly number of enrollments for JEE and NEET requires coaching from a small age to develop the thinking ability of students.

- Access of quality edu in every cities

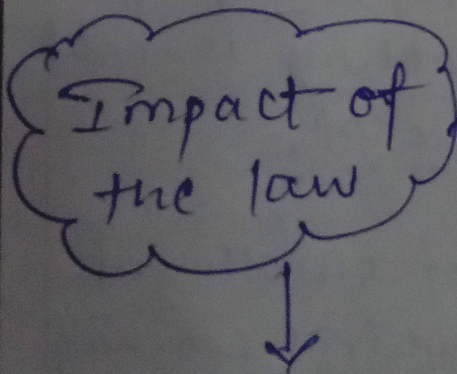

(iii) It enhances the child ability and helps him/her to crack big competitive exams.

Arguments in Favour

(i) Coaching from a small age harms the childhood progress and hampers social ability and interaction of child.

(ii) Coaching discourages other forms of careers in sports, and makes child feel that education is only good career.

(iii) It creates enormous amount of pressure on students which many times resulted into suicides.

(i) It will allow the childrens of small age to discover their talent and interest.

(ii) It will diversify the career option and may also solve the problem of unemployment.

(iii) The law takes coaching centres under the ambit of Consumer Protection Act, that will stop them from charging more fees and exploiting students.

Good Content

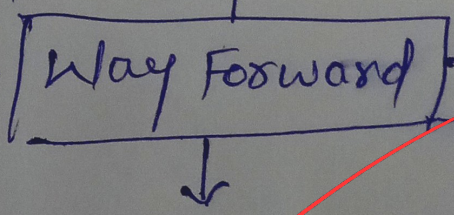

(iv) It will curb the financial stress of students, as fees will be refunded if someone wants to leave coaching.

Discuss issues due to which come into light.

(v) Many students may also feel deprive of resources and due to this act, as they want to pursue the career that requires coaching from young age.

Media role is necessary in promoting awareness to rural areas.

Government and parents need to take care of amount of pressure, their child is bearing.

A proper consultation between stakeholders

Some sector-specific coaching should be allowed for all age.

Students are the future of nation and they should be handled and nurtured carefully for future growth.
